

Free "Shorty" Keeps Labor Shortage Away From Tom's Farm

SENATOBIA, Miss., April 29. (Sp.)—In the circuit court here Thursday Mose Bowen was acquitted on a charge of murder. Mose, who is a negro man, was charged with killing his affinal son-in-law, Tom Taylor, another descendant of Ham, in jail on a charge of moon-shining. Tom is 65 years old; owns a splendid farm, two miles west of town. It is said that Tom was never bothered by the labor shortage; every Saturday afternoon he would present each one of his laborers with a quart of corn liquor. And the fellows would come for miles to work for him. Tom owned a truck, and it is said that he never sold whisky in this county, but would use the "ship by truck" method in carrying his liquor to Memphis, where he had a partner on Beale avenue. Tom will have his day in court.

FINE FRUIT PROSPECTS NEAR BLUE MOUNTAIN

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., April 29. (Sp.)—Despite adverse weather conditions, strawberries and fruit in this section are promising a good yield. Berries are well fruited and thrifty, and the cold weather does not seem to have done any real damage to the young peach prospects. This section of Mississippi is one of the finest peach areas in the state.

New Newspaper At Charleston, Miss., Has Airplane Route

CHARLESTON, Miss., April 29.—Delivering newspapers by airplane was successfully tested out today by Charleston's new newspaper, the Mississippi Sun. Notice that the paper was to be delivered by the air route had been sent to various outlying towns and the distributing points were thronged with people. The papers had been made up in bundles for each locality and made fast to parachutes. Returning from its delivery route the airplane took passengers for a flight over the town. H. H. Pate, manager of Charleston's Development club, was the first to take the trip, followed on the next flight by Miss Christine Thornton. The plane used is one of the Memphis Aerial Company. It was piloted by Aviator Fred B. Cann. The airplane will give a series of exhibition flights tomorrow.

FRUIT BROKERS FLOOD CRYSTAL SPRINGS, MISS.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS, Miss., April 29. (Sp.)—The question of accommodating the Northern brokers and commission men who come here each year for the vegetable season, is a serious one this season. There is only one hotel here, and boarding houses are filled to capacity already, some boarding house keepers turning away their regular boarders in order to take in the commission men, as they are not particular what they have to pay as long as they are getting accommodations.

There is not a vacant residence or storehouse in town.
